Announcements and Reminders

- CC CLOSED Independence Day, Thu. July 4th
- Water Play and Swimming! Reminder to bring swimsuits, towels, and spare clothes during days where your child might be getting wet.
- Due to the holiday and the Natural History Museum's hours of operation, some kids will be missing out on field trip time. Cabins 1-7 will supplement this by having a "Drive-in" viewing of one of the Land Before Time films. They will be creating boxcars to sit in while they watch the movie at the site!
- The New Mexico sun can be quite brutal! We need some help ensuring that we don't send any sunburnt kiddos home. Sunscreen donations are appreciated!

Here are a few snapshots of the fun adventures we've been having on our field trips!

Cabin Mascots!

An important part of creating a cabin culture is establishing the cabin's mascot. Mascots can range from the simplest yet most charming of animals, like "puppies", to the wackiest of characters, like the "Mustached Walrus Grandpas"! This year, the cabins were able to create their mascots during their field trip to Lunar Golf and Build-a-Bear!

D.C.G.O.F Party!

As the winner of a cabin challenge, Cabin 10 was awarded a party with the Site Directors! On the topic of wacky mascots, Cabin 10's is Depressed Curious George on Fire aka DCGOF. Cabin 10 took the time to decorate their room and set the table for food and drinks. Cabin 10 dined on spicy chips, ice cream sundaes/floats, and dug into a DCGOF cake! We also participated in a DCGOF drawing contest. Unfortunately, the Directors weren't able to join in on the food challenges or the game Pie Face. However, Cabin 10 is happy since their cabin leader, Juanita, was pried in the face multiple times due to answering trivia incorrectly!
