

Ballooning at Bandelier

Everyone in Albuquerque knows that cooler weather and the first couple weeks of October means that it is Balloon Fiesta time! And, here at Bandelier we get the special opportunity of participating in Albuquerque Aloft; the kickoff event of the Balloon Fiesta. We were able to watch a balloon set up and inflate and take pictures from the gondola! In the following days, we also had plenty of opportunities to view balloons ascending into the sky from our very own school!! During the last days of Balloon Fiesta, while enjoying Fall Break, we even made our very own hot air balloons with tissue paper. We are elated to say that we fully enjoyed the hot air balloon festivities here at Bandelier!

Wednesday Club

At our most recent Wednesday Club Meeting, we played a game called “Keep Your Wednesday Face on,” a clever adaptation of a game Milo employs in his improv club where participants try to keep a straight face while everyone else takes turns trying to make them laugh. Milo assisted this event, relaying rules, giving structure, and setting boundaries (thanks Milo!).

We all practiced our pre-game Wednesday Faces in anticipation of the official start of our game, although our Wednesday Faces were spot on. Everyone including our most serious and practiced Club Leaders, eventually cracked their “Wednesday Face” facade, lost their composure, and broke down in the face of utter hilarity. A dismal defeat, marked with cackling peals of laughter and shrieks of delight!

We were also treated to an instructional lesson on “how to perform the Wednesday Dance” taught by Rhiannon and assisted by Amy. “If you think you’re not a good dancer don’t worry, you don’t need to be a great dancer to do the Wednesday Dance. Just follow what we’re doing and do your best to remember that it doesn’t matter what other people think. Wednesday doesn’t care at all what people think so we shouldn’t either, it is Wednesday Club after all.”

Have you ever sat down for a proper tea time? At Bandelier, we have a proper tea time every Tuesday morning. Our tea time includes proper tea sets, a variety of teas and delectable treats as well. Tea club hosted Tuesday tea time for the entire community and it was a smashing success! The whole club chipped in to make it happen from setting the table and placements to cleaning up in time for school!
