TORTILLAS!

Activity members made tortillas from scratch. When Alexander learned that they were going to be making tortillas that day, he said, “My dad makes the best tortillas in the world!”

When asked how he thinks we will make them today, he said “I think, first is the flour. Then, the water, and then they go in the oven.”

Statham is a new kid joining the CC Inez crew! He learned from his mom how to roll out the tortilla dough with just his hands. “This is how you make pizza!” As he tossed the dough up in the air.

As we continue to engage in cooking activities, we see the students past experiences more and more. Meriyah and Elias discussed how they’ve made tortillas with their families before!

REPORTING LIVE!

Orion and CJ came together one day and decided to start a creative writing club. They were really excited to get it started and gather a list of items that they would need. Mainly notebooks/journals and writing implements like pens and pencils.

They soon realized that there wasn't a ton of other kids interested in their club and decided to pivot! So, they decided to practice journalism and started by interviewing the staff. Live on the scene, they interviewed staff and asked some important questions. They even had the opportunity to type up their findings in this very newsletter! Unfortunately, the reporters didn't record direct quotes from the staff. But, you will find some good paraphrasing!
