Mini Canvas Paintings

Our little artists embraced their creative sides with a special mini canvas painting activity! The challenge was to answer the question, "What's your favorite thing about CC?" Through vibrant colors and unique designs, the kids expressed their love for activities, friends, and favorite moments at the site.

Not only was this a fun and messy art project, but it also became a way for the kids to learn more about each other's interests and favorites. From sports and art to friends and field trips, every canvas told a story. The finished paintings were a wonderful showcase of artistic talent and the strong sense of community at CC!

Chocolate Chip Pancakes with Older Kids Club

The older kids took charge in the kitchen with a delicious activity—making chocolate chip pancakes for the entire program! From start to finish, they handled every step, from planning and prepping to running a smooth assembly line to serve up pancakes.

Their teamwork and organization were on full display as they worked together to ensure everything ran like clockwork. Not only did they showcase their culinary skills, but they also demonstrated leadership by taking responsibility for creating a special treat for everyone to enjoy. The chocolate pancakes were a big hit, and the older kids were proud of their accomplishment!

Gumdrop Grab

This week, the kids dove into a new and exciting game called Gumdrop Grab! Combining imagination, teamwork, and nonstop energy, the activity kept everyone engaged and having fun. The game was a great way to bring older and younger kids together, as they worked as a team to make the experience enjoyable for all.

A big highlight was the creative use of a parachute, which added an extra layer of excitement to the game. Whether they were playing as the candy monster, saving teammates, or just enjoying the action, the kids embraced the activity with enthusiasm!

Aubrey: "I liked being the candy monster!"

Joaquin: "I did really good at saving people!"

Hayden: "The parachute reminds me of waves from the ocean!"

Gumdrop Grab was a hit, leaving everyone eager to play again soon!

JB News – Kid Interviews!

Exciting things are happening with the launch of our new JB News Club! This club will help kids share all the fun and excitement of Children's Choice with the community. To kick things off, we started with some kid interviews, allowing them to take the lead in showcasing what makes CC so special.

Stay tuned for more stories, interviews, and updates from JB News as the kids take on the role of junior reporters!
